A look at our retreat attendees

Vice presidents. Directors. General managers. These are the executives you will meet during our Executive Retreats. From the design, construction and maintenance side of the retail, restaurant and hospitality sectors, we deliver you the who's who of decision makers. Each is personally selected and invited by Commercial Construction & Renovation Publisher David Corson.

Why your investment matters

Our sponsorships gives you the biggest pay off at an affordable price. Here's what your investment gives you:

Exclusive representation

Unlike events that include sponsors from the same category, none of your competitors will be present. If you sponsor the event, the opportunity is yours at future Retreats. That means you have the right of first refusal to renew your program for 2016 retreats.

Be our guest

Our attendees receive spouse/guest airfare, ground transportation, hotel accommodations, activities and hosted meals. As a sponsor, you must pick up your airfare and transportation to the resort.

Post-event coverage

During our post-event coverage, you will receive two full-page, four-color ads in Commercial Construction & Renovation magazine. In addition, you will get coverage – including videos and photos – on our website (www.ccr-mag.com) for a year following the event.

Your sponsorship includes a roster of all participants, including complete contact information.

Why this is your best investment yet

Here's why being a program sponsor for our Executive Retreat is the best choice you will make in 2015:

Long-term ROI

If you're looking to build relationships, we have what you need. You will see why spending three days alongside your industry colleagues and clients is the only way to create relationships that matter. Whether discussing critical industry issues or racing around a NASCAR track, our events put you in the middle of the action.

Hassle-free participation

There are no hidden costs in our affordable sponsorship fee. And, our meetings staff will facilitate your entire event participation.

Money well spent

Retreat sponsorship includes, hotel, meals and activities (the airfare/transportation to the Retreat is up to you).

While other events charge equivalent or higher fees, you often have to pay your expenses. Our sponsorships include:

- 2 full-color, full-page ads in Commercial Construction & Renovation
- Extensive editorial coverage within the pages of our magazine and on our website

Sign a 2015 Sponsorship contract now and lock in your category for an affordable cost

Thoughts from past attendees...

"I just wanted to say how much I enjoyed your recent Miami Retreat. As you know I have been trying to attend since your very first one and was glad I was able to make this one. I found it valuable and definitely worth my time. Alice and I especially enjoyed our dinner conversation and getting to know you and Michael a little better. Best of luck and thanks for including us in this awesome event."

– Gary W. Rall, Vice President, Resort Renovation & Design, Wyndham Vacation Ownership

"Thanks for another wonderful event. I had a great time and met with some great people. I truly think this is the type of event that produces the best results and greatest return on time."

– Clay Addison, Director of Construction & Purchasing, Belk

"No other industry publisher assembles an event of this caliber and quality."

– Brent Saul, Director of Construction, Liz Claiborne

Again thank you for the amazing conference. I met so many incredible women and now have new partnerships and friendships in the field because of it. David also had such a great time, there was such great energy and camaraderie between all of the attendees and their guests. So thank you to you, your wife and Mike for a truly motivational and invigorating event

– Vember Stuart-Lilley, Special Projects Manager, Guess?
